

SANDHURST TRUST AUGUST 10th 2022

One of our members, Bernard Allen, volunteers at The Royal Military Academy Sandhurst and has suggested that our members could attend a parade at Sandhurst linked with a tour of their historic buildings. Our Committee felt you would enjoy this event.

So we have a booking for the Commandant's Parade (this is the final rehearsal before the Queen's Parade the next day) on Wednesday 10th August 2022.

The details of the day are as follows:

1. We travel there in our own cars. On arrival between 9.30 and 10.00 we will be met by our guides who will show us to our allocated room in the Old College where we can drop off our picnics.
2. Refreshments will be served from 9.45 to 10.25 and thereafter we will be seated in Sandhurst Trust reserved seating in the covered stand.
3. The Parade starts at 10.40 and finishes at 12.15.
4. At 12.30 we return to our allocated room for our picnic lunch. Tea and coffee will be provided.
5. At 13.30 we will start our guided tour of the Old College and the prestige rooms including the Royal Chapel and the Roman Catholic Chapel.

The cost is £40 per head including the teas and coffees. I am sure you will find this an interesting day. If you wish to attend, please will you fill in the attached application form and make sure I have it back with your cheque by the end of June. I will not be cashing your cheques until I have to pay for the tickets nearer the time. In July I will need full details of your names and the car in which you will travel so that these details can be supplied to the Guardroom otherwise you won't be allowed in! I will also then give you further details of the arrival process. You will also need to have photographic ID with you on the day. We have to be smartly dressed so please refrain from wearing jeans and hoodies. As usual wives or partners are welcome.
